Program Benefits

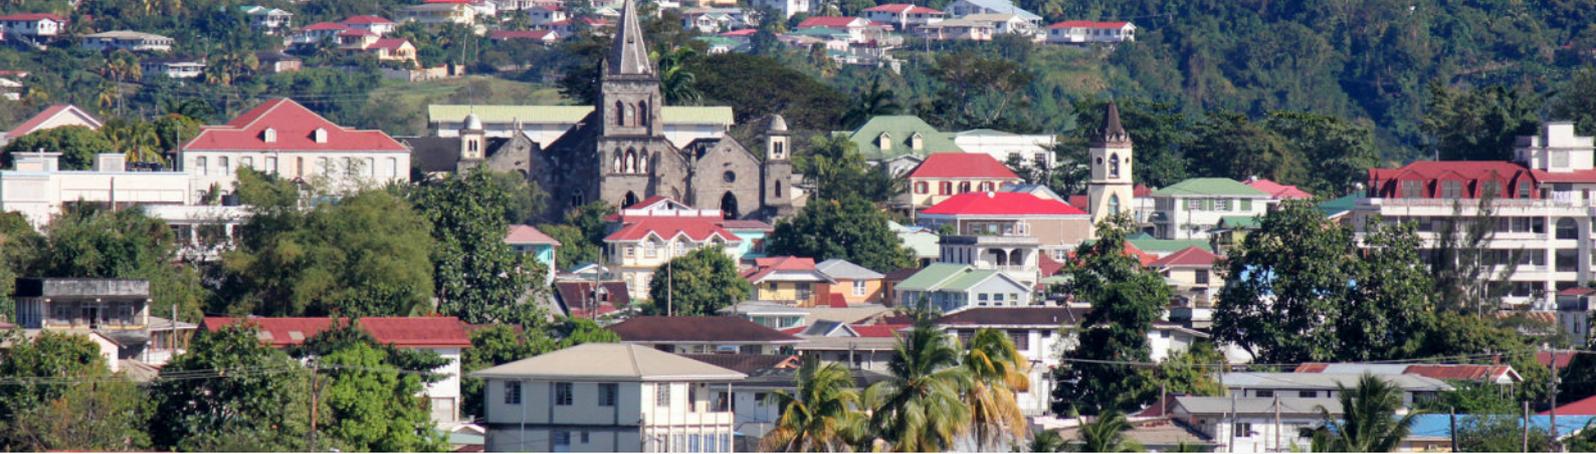

- Dominica citizenship offers visa-free or visa-on-arrival access to over 140 countries worldwide.
- The program has one of the most affordable investment thresholds, starting at USD 200,000.
- Family members, including spouses, children, and parents, can be included in the application.
- Citizenship is granted for life and can be passed on to future generations.
- There is no requirement to reside in Dominica before or after obtaining citizenship.
- Processing times are quick, typically taking 3-4 months from application to approval.
- The program offers investment diversification through real estate opportunities in approved projects.
- Dominica allows dual citizenship, meaning investors can retain their current nationality.

Eligibility Criteria

To qualify for citizenship the main applicant must be over 18 years of age, meet the application requirements, and select one of the following 2 options available:

- A non-refundable contribution to the Economic Development Fund of USD 200,000 for a single applicant, or USD 250,000 for a main applicant and up to three qualifying dependents. USD 25,000 is required for each additional qualifying dependent under 18 years old, and USD 40,000 for each additional qualifying dependent over 18 years old.
- A real estate purchase with a minimum value of USD 200,000, which can be sold after three years on the open market and after five years to a new citizenship by investment investor.

Procedures and Timelines

Document processing for Dominica's Citizenship by Investment program typically takes 3 to 4 months. The application can include family members, such as spouses, dependent children under 30, and dependent parents or grandparents. The investor is not required to visit Dominica, but the investment must be maintained for three years to retain citizenship.
